The template for what is now our Antigua Dessert Wine was initially crafted at Beaulieu Vineyards by iconic Napa Valley winemaker André Tchelistcheff in the 1960s. Antigua is produced using the solera process, a system of fractional blending over a number of vintages—in this case, over decades. In the late 1980s, Merryvale purchased the last barrels of wine Tchelistcheff initially crafted which was made from vintages 1970 to 1983. Using these barrels as the base, Merryvale began crafting the later vintages that comprise the Antigua solera. The must was partially fermented, and fermentation was arrested by the addition of fine pot-still brandy. Golden/amber in color from its long aging in French oak, the wine is a complex combination of nuts and orange-peel aromas. Thick and rich in the mouth, the nuts and orange-peel theme continues from the entry through the long finish, highlighted by the many subtleties from the fine brandy and time in the barrel. 375mL SRP $46.99

ROCO Gravel Road Chardonnay Willamette Valley. 100% Chardonnay. Whole cluster pressed. After settling in the tank, the juice is racked to French oak barrels where it completes fermentation. After the primary fermentation, the young wine goes through malolactic fermentation. Fruit is front and center on the nose, with pear, yellow citrus, and foretelling complexity hints of rambutan, apricot, and toasted hazelnut aromas. The palate is signature ROCO juiciness, with persimmon, honey crisp, nashi pear, and a citrus flavor reminiscent of Amalfi Coast lemon or Sicilian lemon gelato. Creamy textured middle leads to a very long finish. SRP $26.99

ROCO 'Gravel Road' Pinot Noir Willamette Valley. 100% Pinot Noir Whole berries soak ten days before fermentation using indigenous yeasts. The young wine is then sent to barrel for malolactic fermentation to soften the acidity and to add further complexity, then racked once to new, one, two and three-year-old, tight-grained, French oak barrels for eighteen months. A delightful gallimaufry of Luxor cherries, red cranberry compote, strawberry leather, black currant, mission fig, and prickly pear jam is layered into spiced Sichuan peppercorn, petrichor, and Christmas spice. This wine has a most generous middle "sweetness", and depth that pipes into a long, rich, sanded tannin finish. SRP $26.99

Martin House Brewing Company

presented by Kyle Swanner, Alabama Sales Representative

Martin House Best Maid Pickle Beer: We teamed up with our friends at the 100-year-old Best Maid Picklery to bring you the Best Maid Sour Pickle Beer. We thought it was a fad too, but seven years later this tasty delight is still going strong as our #1 seller. Sit back and pucker up, because this brew tastes just like a delicious jar of pickle juice – it's the exact same brine they use in their jars of pickles, only with a bit higher ABV. SRP $13.29 6-Pack/12 oz cans

Martin House Doctor Bock: We've taken our classic Bockslider and repackaged it as Doctor Bock – same great beer inside, but killer new name and art more representative of who Martin House is. Doctor Bock is a post-apocalyptic space man or something pretty weird, but liquid itself is the same delicious roasty, semi-malty treat that's been a longtime staple at Martin House. SRP $13.29 6-Pack/12 oz cans

Martin House Mayday IPA: Our first new core IPA in several years, Mayday IPA is a hybrid West Coast/American IPA. It's super tropical using Cascade, Lemondrop, and Hallertau Blanc hops, and at 6%, it's very crushable. Welcome to the family, crazy zombie skeleton or whatever you are man – we're definitely looking forward to the first brand new addition to the Martin House core lineup in several years. SRP $13.29 6-Pack/12 oz cans

Martin House The Imperial Texan: A traditional old school IPA, harkening back to a time before hop bombs became all the rage. But don't let that fool you – this one is still super hoppy, but with a ton of malt to help balance this out. And let's not forget – at 9%, this banger will definitely keep you on your toes while still being a bargain line priced with our other core beers– this is one serious beer, and fans of IPAs both new and old will want to add it to their regular rotation. SRP $13.29 6-Pack/12 oz cans

Martin House The Salty Lady: Our version of the classic Gose, a somewhat obscure tart, and salty German style beer, only with the typical modern Martin House twist on it. The flavor is bright and citrusy – think lemon-lime Gatorade on a hot summer day, but with just enough salt to temper the tartness, and a dash of coriander to give a slightly earthy touch to the citrusy burst. SRP $13.29 6-Pack/12 oz cans

Martin House True Love: A refreshing fruited sour – think a slightly tart raspberry soda. This was once our top seller and has since been dethroned by the Pickle Beer, but has maintained #2 status for years. We hope you enjoy it as much as we do! SRP $13.29 6-Pack/12 oz cans

Palo Pinto Craft Cocktails: These malt-based RTDs came about when we realized we were making a number of seasonal beers inspired by cocktails, and that there was a market for malt-based cocktails that were delicious. The Strawberry Margarita is the classic blend of strawberry puree and sea salt, and will brighten your day! The Moscow Mule is the perfect balance of Ginger and Lime Juice making for the ideal cocktail any time of day. La Paloma is simply Grapefruit Juice, agave nectar, and sea salt, and perfect for any occasion. And last – but certainly not least, the Bloody Mary is the chef's kiss of the brand, and we promise it's the best canned Bloody Mary you'll ever drink! SRP $13.49 4-Pack/12 oz cans
